LOCO GETS BIG ORDER

LID FITTED TIGHT BY MAYOR LAMAN

Even Electric Light Plant Shut Down in Spencerville

GIVEN TASTE OF BLUE LAWS

Mass Meeting of Citizens to be Called Later in Week

Revival of New England "Blue Laws" received a mild and good natured welcome at Spencerville, Sunday.

All places of business, with the exception of a restaurant, which was open for one hour at noon, and the gasoline filling stations, were closed tight.

Even the city electric light plant was shut down during the day and it was not until twilight that the current was turned on again.

WILL CALL MASS MEETING

"Whether everything shall be closed up on Sunday depends on what the people want," Mayor Charles C. Laman said Monday. "A mass meeting will be called later in the week to sound out public sentiment on the matter.

"Some of the people are in favor of closing a part of the business places and permitting the remainder to stay open," the mayor continued.
"Others maintain that there should be no discrimination and that if one is closed all must be closed.

"We decided the best way out of the difficulty was to close everything, except that which is absolutely necessary, until public opinion has decided which course shall be pursued," he concluded.

There was no attempt on the part of any of the business houses barred to open up. Many spent Sunday in town. Others went to church, took an automobile ride, or remained at home.

The question of Sunday closing came up in the previous administration, it is understood, when a moving picture theater was ordered closed on Sundays.

Sunday shows in the theater have been in progress since the first of the year, but a movement was placed on foot to have it closed again. It is said. This movement resulted in the series of "texas" which started Sunday.

Enforcement of the Sunday closing laws, which prevent even the distribution of newspapers on Sunday, will be continued each week until public opinion decides whether an "open" or a "closed" town on Sunday is desired, Mayor Laman said.

following day and indicted a fourth

STRIKE CLOSING STEEL PLANTS

Miners' Walkout Brings About
Coal Shortage

ACTION PLANNED BY U. S.

Daugherty Arrives at Indianapolis—May Quash Charges

(By JOHN NIMMICK)

PITTSBURG — (United Press)
—United States Steel Corporation
today met United Mine Workers' threat to tie up its rich coal properties in the Connelsville region, by closing down one of its biggest steel plants here. The American Steel and Wire Works closed, throwing 1,500 men out of work.

Curtailment will also be made in the Steel Corporation's big plant in Donora, where 5,000 are employed.
Shortage of coal is the reason given.
The Carnegie Steel company,
chief subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, banked two furnaces in Etna, cancelled an order to start up Isabella Number 3 furnace on the north side and reported considering closing Isabella furnace 1 and 2. The Carnegie company also suspended operations at its Farrell, Pa. plant.

Blast furnaces, barometers of the steel industry, have been banked by the Republic Iron and Steel Company in the Mahoning Valley and a number of independents in the Ohio group.

FURNACES BANKED

STREUBENVILLE (Associated Press) — All three furnaces at the Mingo Junction plant of the Carnegie Steel Company were banked today when the coke supply was cut off by suspension in the Connellsville fields. The plant had been operating in full for several weeks with 1,500 men employed. Superintendent G. E. Wisener stated that operations could be resumed within a few hours after the regular supply of fuel could again be obtained. About thirty car-loads of coke is used per day in operating the plant.

U. S. PLANS ACTION

INDIANAPOLIS — (United Press)
—Attorney General Harry M.
Daugherty invaded the center of union activities in the nation-wide coal strike today presumably to take the government's first concrete action toward ending the suspension.

The attorney general was understood to be preparing a motion to quash the government's conspiracy charges against 236 coal mine owners and union officials returned by a federal grand jury here under the Sherman anti-trust law in the spring of 1920.

Many operators, in refusing to enter inter-state wage negotiations with union representatives, gave as their reason the pending charges which were aimed at collective bargaining practiced in the wage scale conferences.

Prosecution of the government's case has been delayed while operators and union officials living outside Indiana fought legal proceedings seeking to remove them to the jurisdiction of Judge A. B. Anderson's court here.

MINERS ENJOINED

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — (United Press) — United States Judge McClintic today granted a temporary injunction in Borderland Coal Company case enjoining United Mine Workers from all further unlawful activities in non-union districts of West Virginia. Application has been pending since October 15, 1921, when a somewhat similar case, involving the check-off case before Judge Anderson in Indianapolis.

That case never having been completed and conditions brought on by the coal strike producing a critical situation, Judge McClintic has acted to maintain conditions in West Virginia and eastern Kentucky, to which the federal injunction also applies.

The United Mine Workers are also ordered to cease maintaining tent colonies in Mingo-co.

The injunction forbids the United Mine Workers from taking any further measures to unionize non-union mines in District 17, which comprises almost all of West Virginia, and also the eastern portion of Kentucky. He also orders the miners' union to cease maintaining the tent colonies in Mingo-co, which have been the center of fighting and dis-sentiment for nearly two years.

This injunction was issued in the case of the Borderland Coal Corporation and 62 other non-union coal mining companies. Application for an injunction was made October 15, 1921, but decision was withheld during the pendency of the cases before Judge Albert B. Anderson in federal court at Indianapolis. Judge Anderson decided that the United Mine Workers were a party to an unlawful conspiracy in restraint of trade and issued an injunction in which he forbade the continuation of the "check-off" system by which coal companies operating under union contract collected dues and assessments and paid them to the union officials.

ARMY MEN HONOR COL. BECK

Roses Dropped From Sky on Funeral Train

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — (Associated Press) — The body of Lieutenant Colonel Paul Ward Beck who was slain here on the morning of April 4, by Jean P. Day, wealthy oil man and lawyer, was enroute today to Washington for interment in Arlington National cemetery.

Mrs. Rachel Beck, the officer's mother, his son, Lieutenant Paul Beck Jr., and Lieutenant John Beck, a nephew, left on the same train with the body.

An impressive demonstration by officers of Post field, Oklahoma, flying station, where Beck was commanding officer for more than a year, marked their farewell tribute to a comrade and one of the army's first fliers.

Showers of blood red roses were dropped on the train from four airplanes as they circled overhead.

Day was exonerated Saturday by a coroner's jury which found that he was justified in slaying the officer, when, according to his testimony, he found Beck in an attempt to assault
Mrs. Day. The jury recommended that no charges be filed.

"There is nothing to justify the spending of money in prosecuting Day unless further evidence is brought to light," the county attorney was quoted as saying.

DEPUTY SHERIFF IS FOUND DEAD

Body Discovered in Water in Ditch Northeast of Lima

DEATH DUE TO DROWNING

Is Identified as Amos Lanning, of Detroit

Amos Lanning, 48, deputy in the office of the county sheriff in Detroit, met death by drowning, according to a verdict handed down by A. C. Adams, coroner, after an inquest into the death, Monday.

DEATH FROM DROWNING

Lanning was found dead in a small ditch near the Patton farm, eleven miles northeast of Lima,
Sunday evening. His body was submerged in two feet of water. The Overland touring car he was driving, pinned the body down.

He was discovered by passing motorists. Farmers raised the car and discovered the dead body.

Lanning is believed to have been traveling from Piqua to Detroit, according to a letter found in his pocket by Dr. Adams. The letter was from a brother, A. H. Lanning, Piqua, dated recently in which he asked the brother to drive down for a visit.

BODY NOT CLAIMED

The body was removed to the Hartman & Sons mortuary at Columbus Grove. Lanning was a thirty-second degree Mason and members of the Masonic order have taken charge of arrangements. Up to Monday afternoon, neither relatives of the deceased nor representatives of the sheriff's office had arrived in Columbus Grove.

There were no marks upon the body to indicate injury of any kind.
Save upon the breast, where it is believed Lanning was thrown against the steering wheel.

The sheriff at Detroit notified officials he had a man named Lanning in this part of the country, but refused to reveal his mission.

Inquiry developed that a short time before the accident, Lanning had sought the way to Findlay and Bluffton, from residents of that vicinity.

Lanning was identified by his badge as deputy sheriff and by his registration card in his pocket. He was a man of heavy build, weighing probably 250 pounds, with dark hair tinged with gray, and of good features and physique.

HAS WIFE AND CHILDREN

Relatives are expected to arrive
Monday to claim the body. The overturned car, an Overland touring, lying in the ditch, attracted the attention of a passing motorist at dusk, Sunday, and farmers lifted the car. It was then that the dead body was found.

It was several hours before when a man answering the description of Lanning had inquired the direction to Bluffton and Findlay. Lanning was unaccompanied on his trip. It is said he has a wife and several children, residing in Detroit.

Lanning is believed to have been in Lima Sunday, but did not call on Sheriff Charles W. Baxter or Chief of Police Lanker, they state.

NERVES GIVE WAY

KING ALBERT ILL AT VERSAILLES

Suffers Nervous Breakdown as Result of War Exposures

VERSAILLES, France — (United Press) — King Albert of Belgium is here incognito today, ill and suffering from a nervous breakdown, brought on by his gallantry in the Belgian trenches during the war.

The Belgian monarch, accompanied by Queen Elizabeth, arrived from Brussels in a limousine, instead of the royal airplane in which they ordinarily travel. He is registered at a hotel under the name of Vanduyke.

King Albert's physician announced he is suffering from acute inflammation of nerves; a result of his exposure in the trenches during the war. Complete rest has been prescribed for the Belgian king. King Albert and Queen Elizabeth have just completed a trip to Italy.

HOTEL ON WHEELS FOR TEMPLARS

Lima Men Live in Pullman Cars
At New Orleans Conclave

A modern hotel on wheels will greet Lima Knights Templars when they arrive in New Orleans, La., April 24, to attend the thirty-fifth terminal convocation of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar.

Limited hotel accommodations have made it necessary for the Illinois Railroad to build special yards to cars for the Pullman cars from the middle-west.

From the time the 75 delegates from Shawnee Commandery step on the train at the R. & O. station April 22, until they return April 29, they will live in Pullman cars.

Everything for the comfort of the delegates will be provided, Harry M.
Reed, chairman of the local committee, has been advised. Dining cars, walks and street lights between the cars and even on up-to-date club house will be provided.

Present plans call for a stop of seven hours at Vicksburg, Miss., on the trip down and a similar stop at Chattanooga, Tenn., on the return trip. Four days will be spent in New Orleans.

Two Pullman cars have been chartered to date by the committee and arrangements have been made for an extra car at Cincinnati if it is needed. Between 60 and 75 will make the trip from Lima, it is believed.

Will Build 40 Switching Engines for New York Central Railroad—Force of Men at Local Plant to be In- creased 400 to 500, to Total of Over 1,100

Ohio Steel Foundry Will be Boomed by the New Loco- motive Order, In Providing Castings—Work to Be- gin at Once—Normal Conditions Near

Receipt of an order for 40 locomotives, for the New York Central Railroad, announced by W. L. Reid, vice president of the Lima Locomotive Works, Monday, assures that normal conditions will soon be resumed at the locomotive plant.

Under present working conditions, 600 men are employed at the local plant, Reid announced. This number will be gradually increased, he says, until the total reaches 1,000 or 1,100 men. It is anticipated that from 400 to 500 men will be added to the payroll during the next five or six weeks, Reid asserts.

IS VIEWED AS FORERUNNER OF RETURN OF NORMAL CONDITIONS

New men will be taken on as rapidly as material is received, to be used in filling the New York Central order, which calls for 40 eight-wheel switching locomotives. Reid believes this is but the forerunner of other big orders from various railroads, which are again getting their stride in normal operation, with a resumption of business generally.

At the present time work is progressing on an order for five locomotives for the T. St. L. & W. Railroad, (the Clover Leaf Route), eight for the C. B. & Q. and several Shay engines, on which the local company specializes.

Work on the New York Central order will be started at once, Reid stated. Big orders for material will keep the purchasing department busy for some time in meeting the demand.

The locomotive company head is very sanguine concerning the future. Reid believes the turn for the better in industry is permanent and that ere long the big local plant will be operating at its old-time capacity.

LOCOMOTIVE ORDER WILL AFFORD BOOM FOR OHIO STEEL FOUNDRY

Business at the Ohio Steel foundry will be boomed by the new locomotive order. The steel plant will supply castings for the engines, which will mean approximately two months' work there, according to J. W. Beall, purchasing agent.

PAIR IS HELD IN AUTO THEFT

Will be Returned to Buffalo, Without Extradition

WOMAN ADMITS WATCH THEFT

Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Kohlepp Sentenced to Works

Four persons—two men and two women—are held at city jail in the theft of a Cadillac touring car from a Buffalo man. They are William Jackson, 23, Buffalo; Charles Henderson, 21, San Francisco; Mrs. Henry Kohlepp, 19, Ohio City; and Mrs. Alfred Hughes, 19, Elgin. Police are not certain whether the women are connected with the men in the alleged theft of the machine, but are holding them as material witnesses. Mrs. Kohlepp is charged with having taken a gold watch, belonging to John Burgess, quartered at the Norval hotel. Jackson and Henderson were arrested Sunday night by plainclothesmen Ward Taylor at the Central garage, W. High-st., after they had taken the car there for repairs, police say.

CONVICTS TO POLICE—They were under observation since Friday night by police. They drove the machine here that night, police say, and are alleged to have picked up the women and took them for a ride.

Chief of Police T. A. Lanker sent a telegram Monday to the Auto Insurance Protective bureau, New York, from which a circular had been received on the stolen car.

The women say they know nothing of the men save that they met them Friday night and went riding with them. They said they came here Thursday to seek work. Mrs. Hughes said she had been visiting Mrs. Kohlepp's sister, in Ohio City, and they decided to come to Lima.

AWAIT WORD FROM BUFFALO

After the arrest of the men Sunday night, the women went to the Liberty hotel, 215 1/2 E. North-st., where Mrs. Kohlepp said she stole Burgess' watch after he took her ride.

WOMEN ARE SENTENCED—Mrs. Kohlepp and Mrs. Hughes were arraigned before Judge Jackson in criminal court at noon Monday, the former on a charge of stealing the watch, which was given in the affidavit as belonging to John Burgess, and the latter on a statutory charge.

They pleaded guilty and each was fined $50 and sentenced to 30 days in the Toledo workhouse. Preparations were made to take them there at once.

Mrs. Kohlepp says she ran away from home because her husband mistreated her, and the Hughes woman admitted family troubles. She said at first they were sisters, but afterward admitted they are cousins.

EXTRADITION WAIVED

Jackson and Henderson waived extradition rights in criminal court and will be taken back to Buffalo. Officers from that city are expected here within the next two days.

Jackson stated that he bought the machine from a man in Buffalo several weeks ago for a stipulated price of $1,000. He said he paid $400 on the automobile. The car may have been stolen, he said, but he did not know anything about it at the time.

He picked up Henderson and started westward on a pleasure trip, in hope of finding jobs somewhere, Jackson said.

BODY OF MINISTER IS FOUND IN SAGINAW RIVER

DETROIT—The body of Rev. Henry F. Reynolds, local pastor missing since November, was found yesterday in the Saginaw river near Bay City, Mich.

Edward F. Wunsch, an attorney and close friend of the former pastor, left early today for Bay City after receiving the description of the dead man from police officials.

It was stated that Wunsch's office said that the attorney was confident that the body was that of his friend. Identification was made by means of a watch the number of which was that of the pastor's.

Rev. Reynolds came to Detroit from New Jersey. He was a World War veteran and was suffering from shell shock.

The search has been world wide. He disappeared while on the way to church where his congregation was awaiting him.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO WHITE SLAVERY CHARGE

CINCINNATI—Marshall Rouse, 21, of Lynchburg, Ohio, in United States district court here today pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging him with violation of the Mann white slave act. It was alleged that while he was a student at a Cincinnati business college, he induced a girl student of that college to go with him to San Diego, Calif., under promise of marriage, but abandoned her there. It is also alleged that he induced her to sign her father's name to a check for $500, she giving him the money. The case was set for May 2, and Rouse's bond fixed at $5,000.

FARMERS PROTEST SALARY BOOST FOR COUNTY AGENT

WAPAKONETA—Objections to an increase in the salary of the Auglaize-co farm agent were emphatically voiced here by some seventy-five farmers representing practically the entire county. REMOVAL OF ADVERTISING SIGNS FROM HIGHWAYS IS AIM OF AUTO ASSOCIATION

Uniform direction and danger signs for roads over the entire state and the elimination of advertising signs on state highways, is the aim of the Ohio State Automobile association whose representatives will meet with state highway men April 15 to discuss the sign problem.

The Lima Automobile club, affiliated with the Ohio association, received notification Monday of a meeting and officers immediately met themselves as highly in favor of the proposed improvements.

Advantages offered by a uniform sign system are self evident. It has been pointed out. Confusion because of many varieties of signs and inaccurate distance markers, it is said, will be eliminated.

State Highway Director Herrick, the Lima Auto club learned Monday has ordered advertising signs removed from state highways. Only official state highway department or automobile club route markers will be allowed.

ROAD MEN STORM HIGHWAY HEAD

Drive Made for Return of Federal Aid for Allen-co Highway

County commissioners, together with officials of the Allen County Good Roads council, left for Columbus Monday to confer with State Highway Commissioner Herrick, relative to the Lima-Delphos road project.

Arrangements for the conference were made by J. Kennard Johnson, manager of the chamber of commerce, after it was announced that $50,000 federal aid for the road had been withheld.

Approval of the road as planned with improved gaps at railroad crossings, will be asked by the delegation. The importance of the road and the need for improvement will be urged by the Allen-co men.

Those in the party besides the county commissioners are: Joe Hartman, chairman of the Allen County Good Roads council; W. C. Bradley, treasurer of the council; Walter R. Toy, county surveyor, and J. Kennard Johnson, commerce chamber manager.

ONE KILLED, FUR HURT IN ROW OVER WOMAN

CHICAGO—Attempt to avenge an alleged insult to the sister of William ("Sailor") Friedman, lightweight pugilist, caused a saloon row which resulted in the death of one man and serious wounding of four others, police said today.

Friedman who issued a statement to newspapers from his hiding place declared that neither he nor his three companions who entered the saloon of Maxie Eisen, where the shooting occurred carried guns.

"We fight with our fists," said Friedman, "we were looking for Charles Hadesman. He tried to force my sister, Mrs. Dora Greensburg to accompany him in his automobile."

Hadesman, questioned by police, denied Friedman's allegations. "It's a frame-up," he said.

Friedman, according to his attorneys, will give up to police today.

OPEN SHOP POLICY IS ADOPTED

Cty of Cleveland to Disregard Union Agreements

CLEVELAND—(Associated Press)—Open shop conditions will prevail in all city departments during 1932, as a result of a decision reached at a board of control meeting this morning.

The board decided to disregard all agreements now in effect with the various unions, but agreed to pay union wage scales thruout the various departments.

In the past there have been no written agreements with any of the unions, but for years there have been unwritten agreements especially governing the employment of union men at the municipal light plant. There the union has always been given the preference, it is said. And in other municipal departments the preference has been "unofficially" shown men with union membership cards.

Now even the verbal agreements must go according to City Law Director Lamb. The unions will be notified the policy of the city has been changed and that the administration will abide by no agreement, either verbal or written.

"We will take the men as they come," Lamb said. "The union will not be discriminated against, but they will not be given the preference. Prevailing union wage scales will be paid in every department, but there will be no agreements of any sort."

Lamb declared the decision of the board was not an attempt to force union employees out of the city's employ. He said it merely means that the city was not tying itself up with any labor organization.

NEGROES, SURROUNDED IN MINE, SURRENDER

NEW LEXINGTON, Ohio.—Charles Brooks, negro, and his son Leroy, for whom a sheriff's posse has been searching for the past three days, today surrendered to the posse at Santoy, Perry-co.

Wanted on a charge of violating the prohibition laws, the two negroes hid in an abandoned mine. When they discovered that the entrance to the mine was surrounded and that escape was absolutely no chance for escape, the negroes surrendered themselves and five guns. They were lodged in the county jail here at noon.

When the sheriff attempted to arrest the elder Brooks at his home last week, Brooks drove him away with a gun. The sheriff then obtained help and trailed Brooks to the abandoned mine at Santoy.

WIFE SAVES HUSBAND AS THEIR HOME BURNS

VAN WERT—Choosing rather to save the life of her husband than the home in which they lived, Mrs. L. Mohler of this city ignored flames attacking the room, and stopped to throw a rug over her husband, whose clothes were afire.

Mohler fell victim to fire when a kerosene can from which he was pouring the inflammable liquid into a stove, exploded.

He was severely burned, but will recover.

The Mohler home was gutted by the fire. An 11-year old son, asleep when the fire broke, was rescued.

LEARNS TO WALK AT 12, GIRL AGAIN CRIPPLED

NEW PHILADELPHIA—Anna May Esphenheld, 12-year-old girl, who walked for the first time two months ago, was a cripple again today.

During the last year the child's body has developed from that of a 14-month-old baby to that of a girl of five, thru a special thyroid gland treatment at the state bureau of juvenile research.

Two months ago she learned to take her first steps, then to toddle along like an infant. She took her first real walk Friday and as she was returning home tumbled and fell.

Physicians declared her right knee joint was dislocated, but repeated efforts to force it back into place have failed.

UNIQUE PLAN ADOPTED TO SECURE FINANCIAL AID FOR DENTAL CLINIC

Mrs. Frank E. Mead, chairman of the Junior Red Cross, which has headquarters at 301 W. Elm-st., has sent out miniature aprons of muslin on the pocket of which is a red cross.

In Cleveland, Mrs. Mead said, the aprons and vases are sent to return as many pennies in the pocket as the waist of the person addressed measures in inches.

Object of the appeal is to aid the dental clinic for children. Charitable inclined persons all over the city contribute.

By way of noting the good work done, Mrs. Mead remarks that teeth of 22 children were cared for at the clinic in February and 125 in March.

TRADE SHIP URGED AS WAR WEAPON

Importance of Merchant Marine Stressed to Congress

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Importance of encouraging development of the American merchant marine for possible use in time of war was stressed at today's session of the joint congressional hearings on the ship subsidy bill by Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, who declared that in event of war an efficient merchant marine is as necessary as an efficient battleship fleet.

"Any limitation thru international agreement upon the future construction of naval vessels will make the merchant marine and its personnel of even greater importance relatively than they have been in the past," he said. "As the number of war vessels is to be restricted, the importance of the merchant fleet as an auxiliary is correspondingly enhanced. Should war fleets be abolished altogether the sea would be definitely in control of those powers having the best merchant fleets."

Mr. Ferguson suggested that when the United States and Great Britain have equalized their naval fleets their war strength on the sea will not be equal, the country possessing the best merchant shipping inevitably having a tremendous advantage. In case of war, he said, auxiliary and supply vessels to serve the fleet would be required in large number and there would be no time to build them after diplomatic relations had been broken.

BLAST KILLS 24

Smelting Works Blown Up in Upper Silesia

BERLIN—(Associated Press)—Twenty-three French soldiers and one German foreman are reported killed and ten others injured in an explosion at the Huettel Smelting Works, near Gliwicz, Upper Silesia. Tremendous excitement was reported from Gliwicz, with the expectation that martial law would be proclaimed.

The latest accounts declare the explosion took place in the family vault of Count Einsiedel, one of the founders of the Royal Smelting Works in the cemetery connected with the works. The unofficial reports assert a hidden mine was detonated during a search for concealed arms.

The German authorities are unable to conduct investigations, the advice state, as the international commission for Upper Silesia is in conflict, but it is declared that so far no evidence incriminating German subjects has been found.

A request that the Fred R. Jones Co., Chicago, be permitted to withdraw its bid of $539,000 for the construction of Lima's intercepting sewer system, will be presented to the commission, Manager Bingham said.

Two other sewer projects, together with a petition for the resurfacing of Main-st. between Wayne-st. and the Pennsylvania tracks, will also be presented to the commission.

HELP IS SOUGHT

Bingham Wants Suggestions on Traffic in Square

Lima citizens are asked by City Manager C. A. Bingham to tell how they would solve the traffic problem in public square.

"Write it out," says Manager Bingham, "and illustrate it with drawings if you want to. The system installed Monday is only an experiment and we are ready to try any plan that seems feasible."

"I have already received several letters giving valuable ideas which may be incorporated in the final solution," Bingham said. "The people who use the public square daily are the ones who know what would help conditions and I want to hear from them."

The erection of a giant semaphore, which can be seen from all parts of the square, as a means of controlling traffic is one of the features of the plan now under consideration.

ROTARY "SQUAWK DAY" IS MADE "COMPLIMENT DAY"

"Squawk day" at the Rotary club luncheon at the Hotel Norval Monday morning turned out to be "compliment day" instead. The few "squawks" heard were more along the line of future needs rather than a criticism of the past.

Several short talks were made by visitors and members. Rabbi Harry S. Margolis, Bridgeport, Conn., and Roy Barnard were two of those who spoke.

As one of the members of Rotary in putting over the day for the Tuberculosis hospital next Saturday was asked by President George B. Bly, after the reading of a letter from the committee in charge of the campaign.

Mrs. T. D. Osborne, Honaker, W. Va., mother of nine children, one of whom she carried with her, said she had only nine cents a meal to buy food for her children last year.

"We lived on bacon and beans," she said. "We paid only $5 a month rent. My children never saw a movie. I have had only one new dress in 12 months."

"My husband hasn't had any new clothes for two years," Mrs. Osborne said her husband was foreman of maintenance of way for the Norfolk and Western.

Broadford Barracks Recaptured by Free State Troops

BATTLE'S CASUALTIES FEW

DeValera Reported to be Ousted As Leader

DUBLIN — (United Press) — Free state troops, driven from Broadford barracks in Cork by Irish Republican insurgents, today stormed and recaptured the barracks, completely defeating the rebel force. One free state soldier was killed in the counter-attack. This was the first occasion on which loyal troops, ousted from their barracks, have returned to the attack and beaten the insurgents.

Dublin had a report today that Irish republican extremists had ousted Eamon De Valera from the leadership of the insurgents. At a secret meeting of rebel army chiefs the former president of the Irish republic was deposed by his followers and an aggressive gunman, Captain appointed in his place, according to information reaching the free state officials who accept with reserve.

RELIEF PROMISED FROM HEAT WAVE

RELIEF PROMISED—F2

Relief from the sweltering heat that gripped the city Monday is promised by the weather man in the way of showers and probable thunderstorms. It is questionable, however, whether the relief will be of consistent nature, for southerly winds and their warming influence are predicted to follow. In a sense, the winds were felt by sweltering Lima Monday, but the air was too warm to permit them to have much effect. They were light and occasional.

The Easter holiday week has opened with record breaking temperature and humidity. What is to come, only the weather man can say. Ted, the little bear, looks forward to truth in his predictions and has sought to care for the egg that symbolizes the Easter season. April showers, have a month or more in which to give vent to their play.

WOMAN LAWYER PUT IN CHARGE OF LIQUOR CASES

CINCINNATI — Mabel Walker Wildefrandt of Los Angeles, only woman assistant United States attorney general, was expected by Thomas H. Merrow, United States district attorney to arrive in Cincinnati late today to take charge of the prosecution of the liquor cases that are pending here before the federal grand jury. She was detailed to this work by Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty upon the request of United States prohibition Commissioner Haynes because of her success in the handling of cases involving violations of the national prohibition act.

As the grand jury will not reconvene until Wednesday, it is expected that Miss Wildefrandt will spend the intervening time in the study of the evidence that has been prepared in the cases of alleged liquor law violations.

STILLMAN CASE IS REOPENED

Witnesses Rounded Up to Attack Husband's Charges

MONTREAL — (United Press) — Mrs. James A. Stillman today opened her defense against the divorce suit of her husband, wealthy New York financier.

Fred K. Beauvais, named by Stillman as co-respondent, rounded up 25 witnesses to appear before Commissioner Eugene Godin here today and deny the allegations against Mrs. Stillman.

The witnesses, it is forecast, will flatly deny the "keyhole" testimony of workmen on the Stillman ranch house at Grand Anse, Quebec, who said they peeked into Mrs. Stillman's bedroom.

Testimony of two witnesses who said they looked from a ladder into Mrs. Stillman's room, will also be contradicted, according to Mrs. Stillman's legal advisers. One of the men giving this testimony, Henri Grennon, is dead.

Mrs. Stillman is being represented at the hearing by her New York attorneys and Gustave De Saulniers of this city. Noah K. LaPlante, Canada's most noted attorney, has been engaged by Stillman.

KEEPING UP THE ROADS

ADVICES received by heads of automobile clubs from the Ohio Automobile association concerning the condition of unimproved highways in the state are not roseate. There are breaks in long stretches of paved or otherwise well improved roads that are almost impassable, due to conditions that vary, according to the location of the bad spots.

In some places the situation is due to the fact that county commissioners have been asleep on the job. In others, there is opposition by land owners to good roads. In still others, the opportunities for securing state or federal aid have not been advantaged. Again, where there were once good roads, mud walls exist at many points, due to carelessness and indifference on the part of officials, in failing to maintain proper repairs.

Considering the fact that Ohio has spent millions of dollars for better highways, and is still using large sums for that purpose, there is no excuse for breaks in stretches of good roads. Paving a few miles here and there, connecting with nothing on roads that go nowhere has been the policy in too many places. The habit should be stopped. Main roads should be improved first, their entire length, without a break and connect with equally good roads in other counties.

A committee of Allen-co good roads men is in Columbus today, endeavoring to ascertain the reason for the withdrawal of federal aid on the Elida-Delphos-rd. Allen-co in the past has been outstripped by some others in the state in the matter of building hard roads, but a good start has been made and there is every reason to believe that the work here will now be pushed with vigor.

IMMIGRATION ASSAILED

DR. C. L. BONFIELD is a resident of Cincinnati. He is a surgeon of renown and in addition is a student of politics, race problems and economic subjects. He addressed an assembly of the members of the Allen County Academy of Medicine here, recently, in which he turned as a fallacy the human melting pot about which we hear so much.

Dr. Bonfield's political aspirations received a setback when he became a candidate for mayor of Cincinnati. He was defeated, but that did not stop his research in the matter of diagnosing human progress. The Cincinnati man is a firm believer that only the contributions made by the Nordic race to the population of America have aided in human progress in this country. The Mediterranean and Alpine brought us nothing, he asserts.

From the Nordic race there sprung such men as Washington, Webster, Bryant, Whitier. American individuality will eventually be submerged by the hodge-podge of humanity pouring into America thru the gates of Ellis Island from southern Europe, Dr. Bonfield believes. He takes issue with Israel Zangwill in the statement that New York is the melting pot of races. Facts show that many of the nationalities that pour into New York are not assimilable; that while in America they are aloof from this country and contribute little or nothing to its welfare or progress.

He declares that perpetuation of the species of the unfit should be curbed by segregation and sterilization; that life is the survival of the fittest. Those who are fit cannot survive if they continue to be hindered and hampered by the unfit. It is quite easy to agree with Dr. Bonfield on these points and also that an immigration holiday should be declared, in the interest of the welfare of future America.

THE SEASON IN FLORIDA CLOSES

CONTINUE THE FAIR

IF Allen-co is to continue to have an agricultural fair and annual exhibition of horse racing, the purchase of new grounds and the building of a new plant is necessary.

The grounds of the Lima Driving Park Co., under lease for 20 years, will no longer be available after March, 1923. Consequently, the fair this year on the old grounds will be the last in that location. It is absolutely imperative that other grounds be purchased or leased, if the fair is to be continued.

Allen-co cannot afford to discontinue its annual exhibition, so long a feature of evidencing progress of this unit of the commonwealth. The fair is a fixed institution, necessary and desirable, affording an opportunity for competition in products of the farm, in baking and canning, in fancy work and in other lines of endeavor, to say nothing of the diversion afforded by the best to be had in horse racing.

Members of the fair board very wisely refrained from the expenditure of money in the direction of permanent structures and equipment on the old grounds, which must soon be abandoned for fair purposes. The purchase or lease of new grounds is the next step. It is not desirable that land be secured by lease. It should be purchased and improvements made thereon that will be lasting and which will give the new Allen-co fair ground rank as one of the very best in the state. A bond issue is proposed. The people will be asked to vote on the question.

Whether the 1922 fair is to be the last in this country is up to the people direct.

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

TRY AN "AIR BATH!"

Did you ever try an "air bath"? If indulged in for a certain time each day, it will soon render you almost invincible to colds or disease. Only persons whose nervous systems and blood vessels can respond to exposures of the naked body to light and air should try the "air bath." You should be strong and free from organic disease before you take it.

The "air bath" trains your skin.

It makes it more resistant to rapid changes in the temperature. It is just as necessary as the water bath. One can put the skin thru a course of training by bathing in water also. Standing in about one foot of water, the body may be rubbed briskly with a wash cloth wrung out of water at about 80 degrees Fahrenheit, and reduced until it is about 50 Fahrenheit. Do not attempt to "train" your skin to a resistant condition too rapidly. Following the rubbing with the wash cloth, the cold water shower or douche from a pitcher may be taken. Begin at 80 degrees and reduce to 50, or until a pleasant reaction ceases to follow. These measures will improve your skin and add to your general health. Be much afraid of skin food and "marvelous" internal and external cures for skin troubles. Troubles of the skin are often more than skin deep. Occasionally after vigorous cleansing the skin may be dry and hard, and a rubbing with glycerin and olive oil may be beneficial. Oils do not really feed the skin since they are rapidly absorbed into circulation. Pimples showing pus or points of "matter," should be punctured with a needle sterilized in alcohol or laid on the flame of a match. Afterward they may be bathed with saturated boric acid solution and very hot moist cloths applied.

TWO WIVES SEEK HUSBAND—STUNT FOR BOYS AND GIRLS—NEWS PHOTOS OF THE DAY

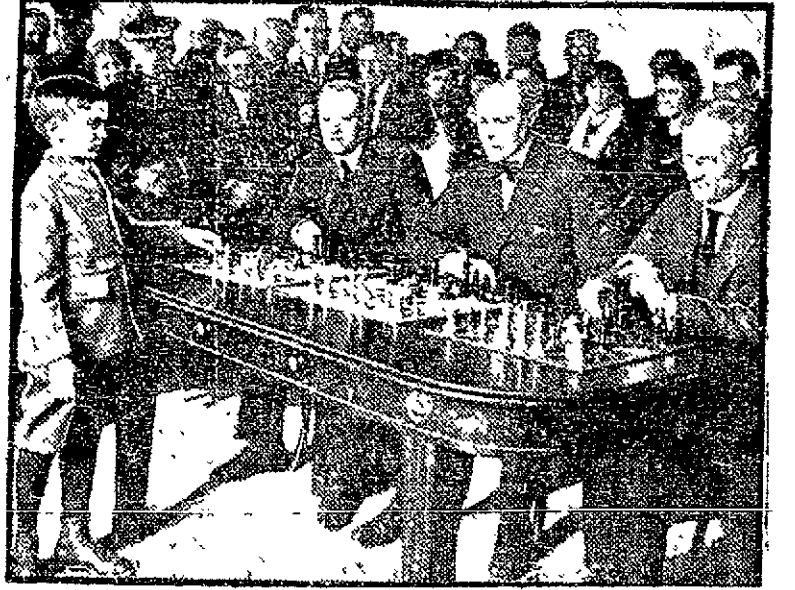

POLICE OF MANY CITIES HUNT ALLEGED BIGAMIST—A nation-wide search is on for Joseph Donald Grafton, indicted in New York City on a bigamy charge. Neither Ellen McIntyre Grafton, left, Youngstown stenographer, nor Peggy Davis Grafton, "Pollies" girl whom Grafton is charged with having married 17 days after his marriage to Miss McIntyre, know where he now is.

350 MILLIONS IN PROPERTY HELD

Custodian Reports on U. S. Seizures of German Interests

ANSWER TO SENATE QUERY

Charges by Senator King Denied by Official

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — An accounting of the $350,000,000 worth of enemy property held by the government was given to the senate today in a report, the first compiled since February, 1919, filed by Allen Property Custodian Thomas W. Miller in response to a resolution by Senator King, Democrat, of Utah.

"The final disposition of this property," Mr. Miller said, "will undoubtedly have a direct bearing on the economic relations between this country and Europe, with particular reference to the late enemy powers. The sequestered property will also be a hearing on the question of the settlement of American claims against Germany."

Discussing the $415,000,000 of American claims against Germany, Mr. Miller recalled the terms of the Hoover-Pepper peace resolution indicating that no disposition should be made of enemy property held by the United States until the German government had provided for the satisfaction of all American claims. He asserted that congress must evolve a plan whereby American claims against Germany may be adjudicated by some proper tribunal created by law.

There are several classes of claims against Germany," Mr. Miller said, "as for instance, those of Americans whose cash was seized by the German custodian, and who are being offered the return of their money at the depreciated value of one-third of a cent for each mark or reduction of 720 per cent from the war value. This proposition amounts to practical confiscation of the property of the German government. There are also claims on file with the state department for the loss of submarine sinkings previous to July 6, 1917."

UNANSWERED — If the German property were reaped today without any conditions, tax laws in force in Germany would require German nationals or people under the jurisdiction of the German government a major portion of the funds returned. It has been suggested that the amount of money which the German government would realize from a taxation might form the basis for a fund to be left in this country, to be applied for the satisfaction of claims of American citizens against Germany, when these claims are answered.

CHARGES BY SENATOR KING DENIED — Charges by Senator King that property had been seized by the last property seized was belonging to Grover Cleveland Edgell, which was seized in May 1921.

AL OF ARBUCKLE IS NEARING CLOSE

SAN FRANCISCO—Early termination of the third trial of Roscoe C. Arbuckle on a manslaughter charge, hanging out of the death of Miss Anna Rappé, was expected with the start of sur-rebuttal testimony in defense in today's session. Several questions of admissibility of evidence, argued during the progress of the trial still await decision, but hardly more than another day of testimony was expected before the opening of arguments. It is believed these might be in the hands of the jury by Thursday.

BROWN IS IN RACE

Announces Candidacy For Secretary of State

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Thad H. Brown, chairman of the Ohio civil-service commission, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state.

Pointing out that the secretary of state in addition to his other duties, is responsible for large amounts of money, Mr. Brown declared he would administer the office efficiently and economically. He is in full sympathy with the movement of newspapers to expedite the counting of election ballots in order that election results may be known, and, if elected would also see that full arrangements are made whereby women voters in every district in the state may cast their votes without trouble or annoyance, he said.

Mr. Brown was born in Morrow, O., educated in the public schools there, and at Ohio State and Ohio Wesleyan Universities. He is a lawyer and has held various state positions. During the world war he served as a major.

EMPLOYEES ARRESTED ON CHARGES OF THEFT

COLUMBUS — Three employees of the Moneypenny-Hammond Company, wholesale grocers, are under arrest here charged with systematic theft of merchandise worth thousands of dollars. The three men are charged with responsibility for the disappearance of large quantities of sugar, coffee and canned goods, which are said to have been shipped to various points in Ohio and sold. Albert Clark, freight handler for the C. D. and M. Traction Company, also was placed under arrest. He is declared to have aided in the disposal of some of the goods in Delaware.

GENOA CONGRESS IS OPENED

Nations of Four Continents Represented at Conference

U. S. AMBASSADOR PRESENT

Envoys Meet to Restore World Normal Conditions

GENOA — (Associated Press) — Nations of four continents in this ancient city of Genoa, today began efforts to restore to the world normal conditions.

"The economic congress, which is generally regarded by competent judges as the most important and significant assembly since the Versailles peace conference, was opened this afternoon."

Representatives of sixty-three states were prepared to take steps that it was hoped would lead to the economic reconstruction of Europe, the conference particularly to be concerned with plans for rebuilding Central Europe and rehabilitating Russia which was admitted by many delegates to be the subject of supreme importance by itself, perhaps the most far-reaching question which the congress shall be called upon to solve.

U. S. ENVOY PRESENT — The ambassador from the United States, Richard Washburn Child, took his seat today in a section reserved for eminent visitors. He will attend all the open meetings but will not be present at any conferences of committees, at which the actual important work of the conference will be completed.

Formal opening of the sessions took place at three o'clock this afternoon in the historic Palace of St. George.

Lively scenes surrounding the opening of the congress intensified by the activity of this busy port of commerce impressed observers as a fitting background for a congress whose serious mission is the restoration of economic health to a suffering and sorely tried Europe.

Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain, who was the chief moving force behind the call for the conference, emphasized the vital necessity there was for Europe and the world of grasping earnestly with the problems confronting the conferees.

While declining to make a prediction as to what would be accomplished, he declared: "One thing is certain; we have come here to work with all energy and earnestness and not to waste time in amusement. I am sure all the delegations are in accord on one point and that is to reach an agreement which will prevent renewal of international conflicts, and reciprocal confidence between the states on a basis of economic prosperity."

As for the French delegation it was declared in its behalf it had come in an open spirit, resolved to do all possible to accomplish the task set for the conference. This is the first time the allies have gathered in such a conference since the war, and the nations which were their enemies in that struggle and others which remained outside the conflict.

MRS. FRANK TOWNSLEY BROWN

CHICAGO — The "widow's mite" shall become the "widow's might." That's if a group of women, headed by Mrs. Frank Townsley Brown, here have their way.

They are forming a national organization to be known as the "Widow's Protection League."

Mrs. Brown, possessed of large wealth, is president.

MANY OBJECTS

Objects of the movement are:

To see that women get back all money.

To aid them in matters pertaining to the collection of estates left by husbands.

To wage relentless war against lawyers who prey on widows ignorant of the law in collection of estates.

To clean up the country's morals.

To remove the prefix "merry" from the untarnished name of "widow."

To uplift womanhood.

To effect a cure for flapper silliness.

Membership is not confined to widows only. Any woman may join free. The league will have three committees in constant session—a legal, executive and investigative.

Aid will be given free upon request at headquarters or by correspondence. Mrs. Brown and other wealthy charter members devoting their spare time and funds to furthering the cause.

BALANCED DISHES Sister Mary Tells Some Tasty Ways to Prepare Them

These dinner dishes are really tasty and furnish the necessary calories of protein for a balanced diet. Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the responsibility of the woman who is planning the spring time meals. The health of her family depends on her in the spring months more than any time of the year. Nourishing, easily digested food is very essential to the building up of the tissues.

ASPARAGUS WITH EGGS

Six hard boiled eggs, 1 large bunch asparagus, 8 tablespoons butter, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 desertspoons flour, 1-2 cups asparagus stock, buttered bread crumbs.

Cut the eggs in halves lengthwise. Trim and wash asparagus and cut in inch lengths, discarding the tough portions for this dish. Use the stringy tough ends for soup. Cook in an uncovered pan in slightly salted boiling water for 15 minutes. Drain and save the stock.

Butter a baking dish and put half of the eggs in yolk side up. Add asparagus and cover with remaining eggs, yolk side down. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add asparagus water. Cook until thick and smooth and pour over eggs and asparagus in baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven for 15 minutes. Serve at once.

DRIED LIMA BEANS AND CARROTS

One cup dried green limas, 1 medium sized onion, 1 small green pepper, 6 new carrots, 1 cup milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 1-2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-3 teaspoon pepper, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 4 thin slices bacon.

Wash beans and let stand in water to cover for six hours. Drain and parboil in water to cover with one-fourth teaspoon soda. Drain and rinse under cold running water. Put on to cook in boiling water to cover once and a half. Simmer slowly for two hours.

If the beans are freshly dried they will cook more quickly than old beans. When the beans are almost done and the water has boiled away about half add the carrots scraped and cut in small dice, the onion sliced and the salt. Cook 20 minutes, uncovered.

The water should be cooked away as much as possible without burning the vegetables. If the vegetables are not dry drain and use 1-2 cup of the liquor and 1-2 cup milk instead of one whole cup milk. Melt butter in a smooth sauce pan, stir in flour and slowly add milk and vegetable stock. Cook, stirring constantly until the sauce is thick and smooth. Put vegetables in a well buttered baking dish, pour over sauce and put the slices of bacon on top. Put in a hot oven fifteen minutes to cook the bacon. Then put under the flame in the oven to crisp.

SCALLOPED RICE

Two cups boiled rice, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup finely chopped cheese, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-3 teaspoon mustard, 1-4 teaspoon paprika.

Beat eggs till light and add milk. Mix salt, mustard and paprika and add to milk and egg mixture. Melt butter and add to rice. Combine mixtures and add cheese. Mix well and turn into a well buttered baking dish. Bake half an hour in a moderate oven.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

WHEN a girl goes to a dance with a man it is necessary for her to give a certain number of dances to him and tell him just what she has been out the night before, but not in each other's company.

Jack puts on the kettle each morning while I dress. I make the coffee while he bathes and shaves.

We slept late the morning following our first night out. Not until I heard a whistle of distress in the kitchen did I remember that I had left it in an awful confusion.

I rushed to help my husband.

"Can't find anything, Peggins!" explained my bewildered spouse.

"Go and shave! You're late, dear!" I pushed Jack toward the door. "I'll fix things." Then to myself, "Goodness gracious! What will he think of me as a housekeeper? Never have I seen a kitchen in such a state!"

In my hurry the night before, I had forgotten to put the food away. Cold baked potatoes adorned my pantry shelf. Lettuce and mayonnaise decorated the sink. The smell of cauliflower was over it all. My kitchen was hot and close for I had left the broiling burner turned on all night!

On the table, my expensive tenderloin steak had turned from a pink hard surface to something flabby, dull red and unappetizing. The heat had done it! It was unfit to eat!

And I couldn't afford it in the first place. And if I'd stayed at home and attended to my business as a wife it wouldn't have happened. And if my housekeeping was going to turn out like that—

I began to sob softly. Dear old Jack heard and came to me.

I pointed to the spoiled beef and said:

PERPLEXED

It is only natural that your escort should have resented your arrangement of the dances. You were right, of course, in giving him the dances which you mentioned, but you were quite thoughtless in your arrangement of the other dances. Your escort should have made out your program and it is to be expected that you be reasonably generous toward him.

It is not pleasant to sit thru a number of dances without a partner. If you knew more of the guests at the dance than he, you should have made an effort to introduce him and made out your program so that it would have been enjoyable to him as well as yourself.

Dear Miss Smart:

I have heard that old photographs may be cleaned to look like new again. Is this right and can you tell me anything about it? I have several old ones around the house which I don't like to see dirty. What can I do to clean them?

MRS. X

Yes, photographs that have become soiled may be made to look like new by washing with a piece of white cotton wadding dipped in cold water. Do not use colored cotton wadding and never use soap, soap powder or ammonia — just cold water.

Dear Miss Smart:

A crowd of young girls have organized a club. We are full of pep and like to have a good time and we thought we should have a peppy and snappy name for our club. Are there any suggestions which you could make?

Fun Seekers, The Jolly Club, Happy-Go-Lucky, or Merry-Go-Rounders are "peppy" names for a club of girls organized for a good time.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT BEGUN TO ERASE ALLEN-CO BLACK MARK ON AUTOMOBILE MAP

Road improvements begun during the past week by county and state officials will erase from Ohio State Automobile maps the black mark set against the name of Lima and Allen-co, it is predicted.

With the exception of stretches of highway between Lima and Wapakoneta and Lima and Bluffton, the Dixie Highway between Cincinnati and Detroit, thru Toledo, is in fine condition, the report received by the Lima Automobile club Monday declared.

At present two detours, now marked, and over fairly good roads, must be followed between Lima and Bluffton, until the work on the regular route is completed.

YOUTH KILLS SELF

CLEVELAND — Lawrence Adamov, a 17-year-old painter, died in the arms of Adam Komacka, his room mate last night, from a bullet wound thru the heart. Komacka rushed to his room after hearing a revolver shot, he told police. Altho the youth died without explaining his deed, Komacka and police declare Adamov's love affair with a girl who rejected his affections was the cause of his suicide.

Desertion, Forgery, Theft,
Charged by Bert L. Kelly

Charges of desertion, forgery and theft have been brought by Bert L. Kelly, 33, Oxford, Ohio, son of J. C. Kelly, 528 E. Franklin-st., Lima, against his wife, Flora Lloyd Kelly, 30, dispatches from Oxford dated Monday.

Police in a number of cities have been asked to aid in the apprehension of Mrs. Kelly who, it is said, eloped with an automobile salesman after forging her husband's name to a $50 check and making a false declaration as to the ownership of an automobile. Mrs. Kelly was one of the leaders of Oxford society, having graduated from a woman's college there. It was while in college that the alleged romance between she and Kelly is said to have started. Kelly is a graduate of Miami University.

The Kellys lived in Lima until four years ago, when they moved to Oxford. Kelly is a traveling salesman, working in Michigan territory. His parents had heard nothing regarding the charges he is making against his wife.

RUTH ST. DENIS TO SHOW ACTORS HOW TO DANCE

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
RUTH ST. DENIS has been engaged to direct the dance scenes in Rupert Hughes' next picture, "The Bitterness of Sweetness."

We should rise right up and give one rousing cheer for that. Despite the fact that a large number of screen players graduated to the screen from dancing shows there has been more artificiality in dance scenes than in any other feature of the films.

Of the actresses now on the screen the only ones having terpsichorean ability are Irene Castle, Muriel Murray and Betty Compson. The latter's ability in this line is a revelation of "The Green Temptation." Credit for that should probably go to Theodore Kosloff, a former ballet master, who trained her.

The only male of the screen who knows how to dance is Rudolph Valentino. His ability as a "dancer" brought him stardom and first place in the favor of the fair patrons of the movies.

There may be other individuals who know how to dance so a camera can record their movements, but their names and the lines in which they showed their ability are not on my mind as this is written.

However, the dance on the screen has lacked realism in groups of dancers. These scenes generally lack composition, the grouping of figures so that in ballroom scenes the dancers seem at ease or so that effect of mass movement in esthetic dancing is presented as it is in stage ballets.

The coaching of such experts as Ruth St. Denis may give realism to screen dancing insofar as the camera is able to record it.

Charlie Ray In a Clever Picture—Sigma

"TWO Minutes to Go," in which Charlie Ray is greeting old admirers at the Sigma theatre this week, is a clever and funny comedy-drama, well produced from every angle.

The scenes are laid in a college town, around Baker College, where Chet Burnett (Charles Ray) is a student, and you are permitted to become well acquainted with the freshmen and seniors of said college, also their line of pranks and jokes, which keep them in a laughing mood.

For reasons unknown to his fellow students, Chet drops out of the football team and, because he had been one of its mainstays, becomes mighty unpopular. And haven't they reason enough to avoid him? For the team has been going thru a losing season, and the boys think that any man who knows how to play football and won't play when he is needed so badly—well, he's lacking in college spirit, that's all.

Of course, Chet has a perfectly good reason, as develops later. His father unfortunately suffered financial reverses, and Chet, to continue in his senior year, takes an early-morning milk route, which explains why he left the team.

Later, then, he joins the team and of course changes his luck, and by so doing regains the love and regard of the girl in the case, etc. The feminine lead is played by Mary Anderson, who is well known to most fans, and who is a lovely creature, at all times. Lincoln Steedman, as Chet's chum and room-mate, contributes a goodly number of the laughs. The subplot is cleverly done and the football game, towards the end of the picture, is quite as thrilling as a real one.

As far as I can fathom, you'll enjoy every minute of "Two Minutes to Go," and come away from the theatre well pleased with yourself for having chosen to see it.

At the Sigma today.

Wallace and Lila In a Diverging Piece

THERE can be no question but that Wallace Reid makes the very most of his role in "Rent Free," his new picture appearing this week at the Faurot. True, the story is along Cinderella lines, and not the kind of story one would naturally associate with the popular Mr. Reid, but it's entertaining, at least, and that's what you're looking for.

A struggling young artist (Wallace himself) finds himself unable to meet the all too constant demands of his landlady, and is in a quandary as to where to go. When least expecting it, he comes upon the roof entrance of a mansion whose owner is touring in Europe. With a chance like that at hand, he gathers up his canvases and paint brushes and moves himself in. The caretaker, a little old lady, being blissfully unaware of his presence, and he'll leave him now and go on to the other side of the story.

It seems that a wealthy father has died and left his entire estate to his second wife, providing nothing for his charming daughter (Christina). The daughter being none other than Lila Lee. So with another sister in distress, she takes up quarters in a single room, until forced to vacate. In their dire need they take up their abode on the roof, living in a tent. A windowed denier of even this shelter, but Wallace, thank Heaven, rescues them and brings them to safety in the house wherein he is hiding.

All kinds of happenings occur in the next two reels, working up to a climax that is obvious, with the heiress restored to her rights and to Wallace.

Guess there isn't much else to say except that the supporting cast is good, and the acting of everyone concerned is all that could be desired, under the circumstances.

"Rent Free" is showing today and Tuesday at the Faurot.

Dyspepsia Has Also Disappeared Since Taking Tanlac And He Feels Twenty Years Younger Declares Youngstown Citizen.

"When I started taking Tanlac I was run down and weighed only one hundred and forty pounds. I now balance the scales at exactly one hundred and fifty-six pounds and feel twenty years younger," said G. W. Nichols, 522 Bennington Ave., Youngstown, Ohio.

"My stomach and kidneys had been bothering me for at least six years. I had no appetite and was losing weight and strength right along. My back and shoulders hurt me a good deal, too, and I had rheumatism in my arms and legs so bad I could hardly drag myself along at times."

"I thought old age was getting the best of me, but I know this was a mistake. All my troubles I am convinced came from my stomach, because now that Tanlac has made it as sound as a dollar I am like a new man in every way. Rheumatism has left me, my kidneys are in good order and I am able to eat, sleep and work better than in years."

SPRING HOUSECLEANING AMONG 'BIG THREE'

18 PRINCETON MEN ARE INELIGIBLE

NEW YORK—Big brooms are working on spring housecleaning around the "big three."

Princeton started it and Yale and Harvard will have to follow it for the simple reason that Princeton puts it up to them to do the same thing.

Eighteen athletes at Princeton, by a ruling of the athletic committee, have been declared ineligible to compete in varsity sports.

Tom McNamara, captain of the baseball team and a substitute end on last year's football eleven, is the only one whose name has been made public.

The committee wished to make it known emphatically today that it has not said to Yale and Harvard—"We have done our part; now it's up to you to clean up."

CHARGE NOT PROFESSIONALISM The committee also insists that the stigma of professionalism does not fall upon any of the ineligible men and that their honor is in no way besmirched.

While it was not admitted officially, it is generally regarded that the 18 are the first victims of the "loan system" which works along this line.

"Mr. So-And-So," a wealthy alumnus, sees a great high school or prep school star. He goes to him with a pat on the back, and asks him where he is going to matriculate. The boy says he has to go to work. He has no money to go to college. The kind benefactor then tells him to set aside his worries, to take the examinations at his alma mater and that his tuition will be paid and that he will be allowed so much spending money.

All the money that is put out on him can be paid back when he makes good in the "big, outside world." There are few records of those loans being called or paid.

The suspensions were the result of more than a month's quiet investigation, the committee said. The list of 18 suspended athletes includes a few who were caught slipping by scholastic requirements also.

princeton, Harvard and Yale are all excited about that question.

The three university dailies seem to think the game is going to the bow-rows.

From our point of view the entire discussion is without rhyme or reason. As a matter of fact entirely un-called for.

There isn't a thing wrong with football. It is a great game. The modern article is fast and snappy, replete with action. The ball is in the air much of the time. It is easy to follow the play. Sport enthusiasts like it.

The big games, with from 50,000 to 80,000 in attendance, are magnificent spectacles. No matter how many you have seen there is always a thrill.

Football must be all right, a pretty good game, or the lovers of the gridiron sport wouldn't patronize it as they do.

When any sport so progresses that 80,000 people are enough interested to stand or sit at a football game, thru two hours of drizzling rain, as is often the case, it must be a worthwhile sport.

In every big enterprise, and football has reached such proportions, certain evils are bound to creep into the administration of the game from the playing as well as business angle.

Certain individuals err, and the action of these individuals reflect on the sport. Football and baseball only recently have passed thru such a period.

However, the game is far greater than the individual. The recovery of baseball overnight after the White Sox scandal, proved the public had faith in the game, even if a few players proved false to its traditions.

Major Daly, present coach of the West Point football team, is a Harvard man. Few greater players have ever represented the Crimson on the gridiron. His career as a coach has been equally successful. No one in the football world has a higher standing than Major Daly.

What is the matter with football was the question I recently put to him.

"Absolutely nothing," he replied. "It's the greatest game of them all. There is more wrong with the colleges as an institution than football as a sport."

BARNSTORM IN SOUTH COLUMBUS.—Intent on polishing up considerably for the opening of the Western Conference season and incidentally tucking a few ball games under its collective belt, the Ohio State University baseball squad will entrain for its first southern trip in history, Thursday.

The Buckeye athletes will spend the Easter recess which begins Thursday, playing ball in Kentucky and Tennessee.

The first game on the vacation jaunt is scheduled with Georgetown on April 14. On April 15 the Ohioans will tackle the University of Kentucky nine at Lexington.

After a day's rest the barnstormers will take a two-days' stand against Vanderbilt at Nashville on April 17 and 18. Then back to Columbus, classes and more priming for the Western Conference opener at home, with Purdue as the opposition on April 22.

Because of an unprecedented shortage of letter men except in the pitcher's box, Director L. W. St. John has postponed pruning an unwieldy squad this spring longer than usual. However, the Southern trip will pretty well establish what men will be relied upon to carry the scarlet and gray thru the "Big Ten" season, inasmuch as only 15 men at the outside will be taken South.

CUT TRYOUT SQUAD The squad of candidates who applied for positions on the Rowlands baseball club yesterday was cut from 60 to 15. Manager McGinnis announces. Final selections will be made Sunday afternoon, after which the club will be ready to meet all comers.

BIG LIST REPORTS Between 60 and 70 try-outs reported for the R. S. Marshall baseball club at City park Sunday, but selections were deferred until later. Another practice session will be held Wednesday at 5 p. m. at Murphy-st park, Manager Leo Ayers announces.

TURN OUT FOR PRACTICE "Scrub," first cousin to baseball, prevailed at Murphy-st park Sunday afternoon. A huge crowd of try-outs for the Independent club, members of junior organizations and a throng of free lancers thumped the well-known onion in lusty fashion.

Fans pilgrimaged to the hallowed spot all afternoon and adjusted their critic's eye to new conditions, especially the grandstand addition.

For the most part the players kept their throwing blades sheathed, fearing the vicissitudes of fickle April. Whenever one did essay a let-out, the welkin, echoed sundry creaks and groans.

Manager Bernie Halloran expressed himself as satisfied with the manner in which applicants are showing up, and he may be ready this week to announce his lineup for the initial game with the Cincinnati Wiedemanns April 23.

DEFEAT AVENGED. COLUMBUS.—The Cleveland Indians got to Lowdermilk early and avenged their Saturday's heating by trouncing the Columbus Senators 10 to 4, in an exhibition game yesterday. The Detroit Tigers meet the Senators today.

AGE DARWIN! TSUBURG.—There are wild rumors being circulated here the Pittsburgh Pirates will "eat" monkey meat brought South America by George Herr, wealthy fan, to help win the pennant in the National league. Fans here believe the management is serious.

ME OLD CATACOMBS FOR BOTH PHILLY BASEBALL MACHINES (BY DAN DOHERTY) As thing sure, the Philadelphia cats will not be a disappointment this year. After having capitated the cellar for three years, will not cause a shock if they found in the same place next in "Kaiser" Wilhelm, will try and at managing the band and will be treated with mercy because the Philadelphia fans have again for any serious person attempts to get baseball out of talent that William F. Baker obles every year.

IA FANS AMONG PENING CROWD ny Lima fans will be among who flock to big-league baseball, Wednesday, to witness going games of the 1922 season. Fortunately both Ohio teams open at home, the Cincinnati with the Chicago Cubs and the and Indians with Detroit wing is the way the big show back up, Wednesday. NATIONAL LEAGUE on at Philadelphia. Open at New York. Stung at St. Louis. also at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUE Louis at Chicago. out at Cleveland. adelphia at Boston. York at Washington.

GINS- BLOCK GO GMBUS.—Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis middleweight, and Ted of Detroit, will meet here to a twelve round bout, to vent on a card of four bouts. s, the "Hoosier Howitzer," is favorite.

APRIL 12--THE SHOUT HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD

TIP TO "GREASY" NEALE MAY COST DUNCAN HIS JOB

IF Eddie Roush ever agrees on terms with Cincinnati and reports, he will, of course, play, center field, with George Burns, secured from New York, in left field.

Right field will be contested for by Pat Duncan and "Greasy" Neale. These two players are roommates, fast friends, yet rivals for a berth in the Reds' outfield.

At Duncan's suggestion, Neale changed his stance at the plate. In the 12 exhibition games played by the Reds he cracked out 18 hits in 49 times at bat for an average of .367 over 100 points better than he usually hits on spring training trips.

If Neale is able to continue his hitting on a par with Duncan, he will get the call over Pat because of his superior fielding and base running.

DUNCAN MAY ALTERNATE The best Duncan could hope for would be to play regularly against left-handed pitching, as he is a right-handed hitter, with Neale in the lineup against right handers.

And all because he advised Neale to change his style at the plate.

It seems that a great many pitchers are basing their hopes to do a comeback on the theory that the lively ball will be missing in 1922. Certainly would be tough if the ball makers crossed them up.

Carl Mays is right-handed, which disproves the long accepted theory that only southpaw pitchers are temperamental.

TWO SLUGGERS COMPARED

BY BILLY EVANS Barleigh Grimes of the Brooklyn club is one of the leading pitchers in the National league.

Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals led the National league in hitting last season.

While Eddie Roush is seventh in the list of hitters, he really ranked next to Hornsby, since the players in between the two in the records played in only a few games.

Hornsby and Roush are great hitters. Hornsby is a right hander while Roush hits from the left side of the plate.

Grimes is a pitcher who makes a careful study of the batters. That is one of the big reasons for his continued success.

The Brooklyn pitching ace says Roush is harder to pitch to than Hornsby. Here is his size-up of the National league's two best batsmen:

"I can tell almost exactly what Hornsby intends to do from his position at the plate, but Roush never."

"Once Hornsby takes his position at the plate he never changes it. If he crowds the plate you know he is trying to hit to right field; if he stands off you know he wants to put one to left field."

"Hornsby always takes a healthy swing. It is a rarity for him to bust on you."

"Knowing these things I pitch to Hornsby accordingly. Of course, I don't always fool him. He makes many a base hit out my delivery. What I mean is, there is nothing mysterious about Hornsby's intentions when he steps to the plate."

"On the other hand, Roush always takes the same position when he steps into the batter's box, but he keeps you constantly bewildered by outguessing you."

"He invariably makes his shift after the pitcher starts his delivery. He either suddenly closes up on his bat or steps away from or into the ball. He can do any of these things from his natural position."

"Often from his position I make up my mind that he intends to take a healthy swing, only to have him lay down a tantalizing bunt."

"More ball games have been lost thru bunts than home runs."

"Hornsby and Roush are great hitters, but I would much prefer pitching to Hornsby."

CHALLENGE LOCAL FIGHTERS Red Young and Indian Horner, local pushers of the padded leather, are challenged by Joe Waltz, manager of Nick Leonard, Akron welterweight, for a bout here. Leonard will give complete satisfaction or won't, accept one silver of the long green, Waltz says.

DUTCH MASTERS CIGAR

"Nothing quite like it—so 'sweet', so mild"

Where does Dutch Masters get its wonderful flavor—so "sweet", so mild? From two small tropical islands—ten thousand miles apart.

Java wrappers are unsurpassed, and Havana filler tobaccos from Cuba are the world's best.

Dutch Masters cigar gets both of these imported tobaccos, put together by hand workmen of top skill. There is nothing quite like it.

MUTT AND JEFF—ON THE LEVEL, AIN'T IT THE TRUTH—

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By McMANUS

SHORT SHAVINGS

Frank Sealts, wholesale grocer, sat at home eating his dinner, with the evening newspaper propped up in front of him.

He became so interested in what he read that after he opened a drawer to get a knife to cut some bread, he placed the bread in the drawer and tried to take a bite out of the knife.

Emmett Curtin, Jr., is laughing at the predicament of a neighbor, who conceived the idea of giving his wife for her savings account all coins that came into his possession that were minted in the same year his wife was born.

"Several days ago," Curtin says, "he showed his better half a fair sized check he had just received. The same day his wife took all the money her husband had given her, bearing the year of her birth and gave it to the cashier of the bank which they patronized, instructing him to pay her husband with it in cashing the check when he presented it.

The obliging cashier followed instructions and the wife thereby doubled her savings by her business ingenuity. The husband is a real sport. He didn't squawk."

Jim Mackenzie, coal dealer, reports he met a polite automobile driver in American-tp, while out in his car.

"I slowed up to let him pass," Mackenzie reports. "When he passed, he lifted his hat and made me a nice bow."

Charley Shappell decided to save a repair bill for a minor adjustment on his car.

"I did the work right," he says, "but it wasn't economical. The repair man would have charged me about $1 and I spoiled a silk shirt that cost me $14."

Fred C. Calvert, flower store genius and vocalist, joined others who hurried to the scene of a fire in the downtown district.

"When I arrived at the fire," he says, "I remembered I left a lighted cigar on my desk, so I hurried back to make sure I hadn't started a fire of my own."

The Joys
That white teeth bring

Millions of people have found them out in this delightful way. This is to urge that you do so—and now.

Combat the film

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.

That film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. Film is the basis of tartar. Teeth that should glisten—millions of them—are kept clouded by that film.

That film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. It constantly breeds germs, and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Nearly all tooth troubles are thus traced to film. And, under old brushing methods, those troubles have been constantly increasing.

Ways to end it

Ordinary tooth pastes do not effectively fight film. So well-brushed teeth, as most folks know, discolor and decay.

So dental science has in late years sought effective film combatants. Two have now been found.

Pepsodent
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific film combatant, combined with two other modern requisites. Now advised for daily use by leading dentists everywhere. Supplied by druggists in large tubes.

Both are embodied in a new-day tooth paste—called Pepsodent—for twice-daily application.

Able authorities have proved its efficiency. Now leading dentists, almost the world over, are advising its adoption.

Five new effects

Pepsodent combats that film with every application. It keeps teeth highly polished, so film less easily adheres.

It multiplies, also, the salivary flow—Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digestant in saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Twice daily it brings these five desired effects. And modern authorities say the tooth paste should bring them.

Watch these effects and judge them for yourself. Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Judge by the benefits you feel. Judge by what your mirror shows. Then decide if you should join the millions who now clean teeth in this way.

Cut out the coupon now.

10 Days Free

We supply this test to every home that asks. Simply mail the coupon.

You will never forget the delightful effects, or ever desire to lose them.

You Can Save on Food

without starving the body or lowering the vitality. The most expensive foods are generally the least nutritious—most of them have no real food value and they tax the digestive organs.

Shredded Wheat

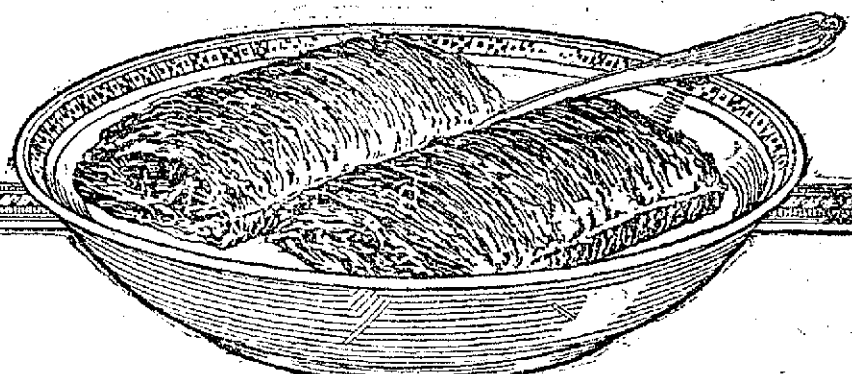

is all food, the most real food for the least money. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat and is prepared in a digestible form. Contains more real nutriment than eggs or potatoes and costs much less. Contains all the lime-salts for making sound teeth and all the elements for making rich blood and healthy tissue.

For a warm, nourishing meal heat two Biscuits in the oven to restore their crispness; pour hot milk over them, adding a little cream and a dash of salt. Delicious with sliced bananas, prunes, raisins or canned fruits.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat cracker—a real whole wheat toast—and is eaten with butter or soft cheese.

Send two-cent stamp for copy of our new book, "The Happy Way to Health," which tells how to keep healthy and strong and how to prevent many ailments and diseases by eating the right kind of food.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG
It's Easy, If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to take young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—darkening under your eyes—dark circles—look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, these stifle for calomel, are gentle in the action yet always effective. They help about that natural buoyancy which should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.
